- 1 世界的に有名な IT 企業, Apple の創業者の一人である Steve Jobs に関する次の記事を読み, 下の設問1)~5)に答えよ。(解答番号  ~ )

Steve Jobs' impact on your life cannot be overestimated. His innovations have likely touched nearly every aspect — computers, movies, music, and mobile. As a communications coach, I learned from Jobs that a presentation can, indeed, inspire. For entrepreneurs*, Jobs' greatest legacy* is the set of principles that drove his success.

Over the years, I've become a student of sorts of Jobs' career and life. Here's my take on the rules and values supporting his success. Any of us can adopt them to release our "inner Steve Jobs."<sup>(ア)</sup>

1. Do what you love. Jobs once said, "People with passion can change the world for the better." ( a ) about the advice he would offer future entrepreneurs, he said <sup>(イ)</sup>
著作権の都合上、省略。 That's how much it meant<sup>(A)</sup> to him. Passion is everything.

2. Put a dent* in the universe. Jobs believed in the power of vision. He once asked Pepsi President John Sculley, "Do you want to spend your life selling sugar water, or do you want to change the world?" Don't lose sight of the big vision.<sup>(ウ)</sup>

3. Make connections. Jobs once said creativity is connecting things. He meant that people with a broad set of life experiences can often see things that others miss. He took calligraphy* classes that didn't have any practical use in his life — until he built the Macintosh. Jobs traveled to India and Asia. He studied design and hospitality*. Don't live in a bubble*. Connect ideas from different fields.

4. Say no to 1,000 things. Jobs was as proud of what Apple chose not to do ( b ) he was of what Apple did. When he returned to Apple ( c ) 1997, he took a company with 350 products and reduced them to ten products in a two-year period. Why? So he could put the "A-Team**" on each product. What are you saying "no" to?

5. Create incredibly different experiences. Jobs also sought innovation in the customer-service experience. When he first came up with the concept for the Apple Stores, he said they would be different because ( d ) of just moving boxes, the stores would enrich lives. Everything about the experience you have when you walk into an Apple Store is intended to enrich your life and to create an emotional connection between you and the Apple brand. What are you doing to enrich the lives of your customers?

6. Master the message. You can have the greatest idea in the world, but if you can't communicate your ideas, it doesn't matter. Jobs was the world's greatest company storyteller. ( d ) of simply delivering a presentation like most people do, he informed, he educated, he inspired, and he entertained, all in one presentation.

7. Sell dreams, not products. Jobs captured our imaginations because he really understood his customers. He knew that tablets would not capture our imaginations if they were too ( e ). The result? One button on the front of an iPad. It's so simple, a two-year-old can use it. Your customers don't care about your product. They care about themselves, their hopes, their ambitions. Jobs taught us that if you help your customers reach their dreams, you'll win them over.

There's one story that I think sums up Jobs' career at Apple. An executive who had the job of reinventing the Disney Store once called up Jobs and asked for advice. His counsel? Dream bigger. I think that's the best advice he could leave us with. See genius in your craziness, believe in yourself, believe in your vision, and be constantly prepared to defend those ideas.
